

Cole Morris, CPP, CHPA, MPA

Security Educator/Consultant

Cole Morris is a security professional with more than four decades of experience in a wide variety of threat environments. This includes a career in the United States Air Force as both an enlisted airman and commissioned officer. His training included security, intelligence, air operations, logistics and munitions. He was honored to serve as a logistics advisor to two foreign governments (Canada and the Republic of Singapore).

Morris' civilian career includes:

1. Corporate Security Officer/Supervisor/Manager in a Fortune 500 high-tech organization.
2. Internationally published author (trade and professional magazines)
3. State Homeland Security Training Coordinator (Arizona)
4. Workplace Violence Prevention Consultant
5. Adjunct Faculty, Webster University
 - Graduate Programs
 - Security Management/Administration
6. Director of Security, Major Healthcare Network (Arizona)
7. Independent Security Training Consultant (Global)

Relevant Education/Training

Bachelor of Arts, Rowan University (New Jersey)

- Criminal Justice
- Summa Cum Laude

Master of Public Administration (MPA), Troy State University (Alabama)

- 4.0 GPA
- Public Administration Honor Society

Certified Protection Professional (CPP)

- American Society for Industrial Security, International
- Board Certified in Security Management

Certified Healthcare Protection Administrator (CHPA)

- International Association of Healthcare Security and Safety (IAHSS)

Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE)

- Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE)
- 20-years' service
- Retired

#